Ad Text Frank Levingston, the oldest veteran in the United States, passed away Tuesday, May 3 at the age of 110 at a nursing home for veterans in Bossier Parish, La., according to family members.
Levingston was also the oldest man in the United States. He held the title for less than a month following the death of Felix Simoneaux Jr. on April 19.

Wish our veterans received more attention and care from our Government. Obama's eight presidency years turned into a disaster to our veterans and soldiers. Hope Obama will be replaced by a President who cares.

We want our old heroes to be proud of their children and grandchildren so they would leave this world with a smile, knowing they will be honored and remembered.

Frank Levingston (November 13, 1905 - May 3, 2016)

Our oldest veteran is gone.

Rest in Peace, American warrior.

Your long path is finally over.
